NOW THEREFORE the Commission orders as follows:

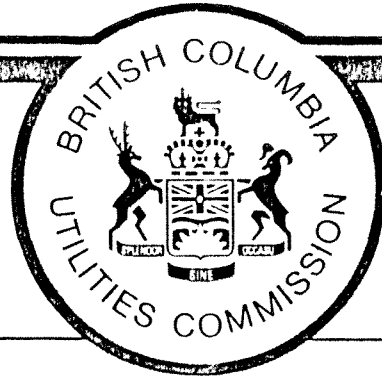

1. Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. T-13-84 issue to Keekwillie Cablecom covering the ownership and operation of a pay-television undertaking, not including broadcasting or the distribution of broadcast signals, serving the Keekwillie Village, trailer community and surrounding Black Pool area, British Columbia, all as more particularly described in the Application and hearing record, subject to the terms of service described in the Application and the hearing record.
2. Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. T-13-84 issue to Keekwillie Cablecom covering the ownership and operation of a system of cable undertaking serving the pay-television undertaking at the Keekwillie Village, trailer community and surrounding Black Pool area, British Columbia, all as more particularly described in the Application and hearing record.
3. These Certificates will expire if Keekwillie Cablecom has not commenced operation of the said undertaking prior to December 31, 1984.
4. A complaint which the Commission finds is related to a matter which may be in contravention of the guidelines for enforcement of the obscenity provisions, Criminal Code of Canada may be referred to the Attorney General for investigation and the Commission may suspend the Certificates until such matter is concluded.
5. No variation or alteration in the Certificates of Public Convenience and Necessity or this Order may be made without the approval of the Commission first obtained.

DATED at the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, this 29th day of February, 1984.
