BEFORE:

D. M. Morton, Panel Chair

on March 10, 2022

ORDER

WHEREAS:

- A. By letter dated April 30, 2021, PKM Canada (Jet Fuel) Inc. (PKMJF) informed the British Columbia Utilities Commission (BCUC) that the company's approximately 41 kilometre long pipeline used to transport aviation turbine fuel (jet fuel) from the Westridge Marine Terminal in Burnaby to the Vancouver International Airport (the Jet Fuel Line, or JFL) had been shutdown effective immediately;
- B. By letter dated May 14, 2021, PKMJF informed the BCUC of its intention to permanently discontinue service on the JFL;
- C. By letter dated May 14, 2021, the Vancouver Airport Fuel Facilities Corporation filed a complaint with the BCUC regarding the current abandonment of service of the JFL and PKMJF's intention to permanently abandon service;
- D. By Order G-154-21, dated May 20, 2021, the BCUC issued Directive 2, as follows: "PKMJF is directed to return the JFL to service, with all necessary safety measures and regulatory approvals in place, as soon as possible, but by no later than 30 days from the issuance of this order unless PKMJF can provide evidence satisfactory to the BCUC that it is unable to do so.";
- E. The return to service deadline established in Directive 2 was varied and extended by Orders G-188-21, G-233-21, G-261-21, G-322-21, and G-10-22, dated June 18, 2021, July 30, 2021, September 3, 2021, November 8, 2021, and January 14, 2022, respectively. The current return to service deadline is March 14, 2022;
- F. By letter dated March 10, 2022, PKMJF requested that the BCUC provide relief from the return to service deadline imposed by Order G-10-22. In its letter, PKMJF provides reasons and refers to evidence submitted as to why a two-month extension of the deadline to return the JFL to service is required;
- G. Execution of the return to service plan by PKMJF is ongoing; and

H. The BCUC has reviewed the evidence and submissions filed to date and is satisfied that an extension to the return to service deadline is warranted.

NOW THEREFORE the BCUC orders that the return to service deadline in Directive 2 of Order G-154-21 and varied by Orders G-188-21, G-233-21, G-261-21, G-322-21, and G-10-22 is varied further and extended until May 16, 2022.

DATED at the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, this 10th day of March 2022.
